

Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Research Centre for the Humanities

INVITATION

Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS – Institute for Social Anthropology, Austrian Academy of Sciences invite you to the conference

Ethnonyms as Source of History and Anthropology – Some Examples and Methodological Questions

Date:

22 June 2016

Venue:

Institute of History, HAS
(1014 Budapest, Úri utca 53.) Room 224

Institute for Social Anthropology

ÖAW

AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Research Centre for the Humanities

PROGRAMME

- 9:00 Opening: Pál FODOR (Director General of the Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS)
- Section A – Chair: István VÁSÁRY
- 09:10 Walter POHL (Institute for Medieval Research, Austrian Academy of Sciences): Ethnonyms and early medieval ethnicity: Methodological reflections
- 09:40 György SZABADOS (HAS – Institute of Military History – University of Szeged – Hungarian National Archives, Research Group for Hungarian Medieval Studies): 'Magyar' as the name of persons, places and communities
- 10:10 Valéria TÓTH (Department of Hungarian Linguistics, University of Debrecen): Approaches to the value of toponyms with ethnonymic origin as historical sources
- 10:40–11:00 Discussion
- 11:00–11:15 Coffee break
- Section B – Chair: Stephan PROCHÁZKA
- 11:15 Salvatore LICCARDO (Institute for Medieval Research, Austrian Academy of Sciences): Barbarians at the gate: Frontiers and ethnic identities in late antiquity
- 11:45 Odile KOMMER (Institute for Social Anthropology, Austrian Academy of Sciences): Social integration, spatial separation? Ethnic diversity in medieval Yemen
- 12:15 Andrea NOWAK (Department of Oriental Studies, University of Vienna): Strategies of setting boundaries between the self and the other in medieval Yemeni sources
- 12:45–13:10 Discussion
- 13:10–14:00 Lunch Break
- Section C – Chair: Walter POHL
- 14:00 Zsuzsanna ZSIDAI (Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS): Mapping Turkic peoples and tribes in the 9–11th centuries
- 14:30 Dávid SOMFAI KARA (Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS): From nomadism to ethnicity – Ethnic identity in Central Asia
- 15:00–15:15 Discussion
- 15:15–15:30 Coffee break
- Section D – Chair: Dávid SOMFAI KARA
- 15:30 Tatiana SAFONOVA (Central European University) – István SÁNTHA (Research Centre for the Humanities, HAS): Evenki hunter-gathering style and cultural contact
- 16:00 Koppány CSÁJI L. (Department of Ethnography and European Ethnology, University of Pécs): Ethnic levels and ethnonyms unraveled in situations. Three ethnological case studies of ethnicity and ethnonyms – in Hunza (Pakistan), in Kunashak rayon (Russia), and in the Carpathian Basin
- 16:30–16:45 Discussion
- 16:45–17:15 Final discussion/Closing remarks – István VÁSÁRY